Romans: Becoming New in Christ (Lifeguide)

Our prayer life becomes stagnant. We forget why we are serving God. And the world's ways subtly become our ways. The study of Romans addresses these problems and shows us how we can break out of old patterns and become new in Christ.

Guardrails: Avoiding Regrets In Your Life (by Stanley)

Guardrails. They're everywhere, but they don't really get much attention ... until somebody hits one. And then, more often than not, it is a lifesaver. Ever wonder what it would be like to have guardrails in other areas of your life-areas where culture baits you to the edge of disaster and then chastises you when you step across the line? Your friendships. Your finances. Your marriage. Maybe your greatest regret could have been avoided if you had established guardrails. In this Bible study, the author, Andy Stanley, challenges us to stop flirting with disaster and establish some personal guardrails.

Anxious for Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World (by Lucado)

"Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Jesus Christ."

Philippians 4:4-8

This 6 week, video based study examines this section of Philippians showing how to be anxious about nothing and how to discover true peace with God.

Isaiah, The Lord Saves (by Nielson)

Sometimes called the "Romans of the Old Testament," the book of Isaiah is a theological masterpiece. Isaiah holds poetry and gives God's perspective on human history and His redemptive plan. Kathleen Nielson helps us apply this book to ourselves as the people of God and points us to our Savior, the promised Messiah. This study contains 24 lessons.
